

POWER UP

RAISE YOUR GAME

How do you get to know God?

READ GENESIS 12:1-4 AND 15:1-7

From the beginning, God has wanted to have a relationship with us. When sin entered the world, that relationship was broken, but God didn't let it stay that way. He made a way for us to be a part of His family, and that meant sending His Son to earth to take care of our sin problem.

Before God sent Jesus, He put that plan in action, starting with a man named Abram. God sent Abram out of his homeland and made a special promise to him. God said that He would make Abram the father of many—including an entire nation of people, and eventually, Jesus Himself!

Bottom Line: God wants you to know Him.
God Calls Abram • Genesis 12:1-4, 15:1-7

God told Abram to count the stars in the sky, which, of course, was impossible. In the same way, it would be impossible for him to count how many children his family would have one day.

Think about all the stars in the sky. That was quite a promise God made to Abram. But that's how much God cared about Abram and He cares about you, too! God wants you to know Him, just like He knows how many hairs are on your head and how many stars are in the sky.

Trace your finger around this star. For each point of the star, think of one way you can get to know God better. Write your ideas next to each point.

PREETEEN

POWER UP

RAISE YOUR GAME

How do you get to know God?

READ GENESIS 12:1-4 AND 15:1-7

From the beginning, God has wanted to have a relationship with us. When sin entered the world, that relationship was broken, but God didn't let it stay that way. He made a way for us to be a part of His family, and that meant sending His Son to earth to take care of our sin problem.

Before God sent Jesus, He put that plan in action, starting with a man named Abram. God sent Abram out of his homeland and made a special promise to him. God said that He would make Abram the father of many—including an entire nation of people, and eventually, Jesus Himself!

Bottom Line: God wants you to know Him.
God Calls Abram • Genesis 12:1-4, 15:1-7

God told Abram to count the stars in the sky, which, of course, was impossible. In the same way, it would be impossible for him to count how many children his family would have one day.

Think about all the stars in the sky. That was quite a promise God made to Abram. But that's how much God cared about Abram and He cares about you, too! God wants you to know Him, just like He knows how many hairs are on your head and how many stars are in the sky.

Trace your finger around this star. For each point of the star, think of one way you can get to know God better. Write your ideas next to each point.

PREETEEN